

In Dreams - Arranged by Malukah
(Words and Music by Fran Walsh and Howard Shore)

** Capo on 6th fret **

I used the capo so I could play the original chord shapes in a key that fit my voice, so if you skip the capo, you'll hear the song in the actual key of the original recording.

I simplified the arrangement quite a bit and adjusted it to the way I know how to play guitar. Hehe! There are several sheet music sites that sell an arrangement that is a closer representation of the original, in case you're interested in that.

Thanks for watching!
